

*DONAUKOMMISSION
ДУНАЙСКАЯ КОМИССИЯ
COMMISSION DU DANUBE*

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

COUNSELLOR FOR NAUTICAL MATTERS at the DANUBE COMMISSION (Budapest)

The Danube Commission (DC), an international organisation based in Budapest, announces that the position of "Counsellor for nautical matters" will become vacant on 1 July 2027. The selection process will take place between July and December 2026.

Core responsibilities:

- Works under the direction of the Chief Engineer
- Advises the Commission and supports its work, and maintains permanent contact with the authorities of the Member States, international organisations, and sector stakeholders
- Coordinates and supports the work of experts in the field of information technology in inland waterway transport from the perspective of operational vessel management
- Prepares proposals, information, reports, and publications within the scope of competence
- Prepares and updates documents of the Commission in the following areas:
 - Designation of navigation route
 - Rules of navigation (Basic Provisions Relating to the Navigation on the Danube (DFND), local navigation rules/maritime radio)
 - Rules of river surveillance
 - Inland navigation security issues
 - Radio communication issues (Handbook on Radiocommunication for Inland Navigation-General Section/Regional Section (Cooperation with the RAINWAT Committee))
- Supports the Member States in developing a joint position within the framework of the CESNI/TI standards and recommendations and ensures the communication of this position in the following areas:
 - Use of new technologies and application of new methods for vessel navigation, i.e., automated navigation, remote control of vessels, use of Track Guidance Assistants for Inland Navigation (TGAİN), exchange of information for communication intended course (Intention Sharing)
 - Increasing cybersecurity
- Monitors and, if necessary, initiates the publication of different publications, manuals, handbooks, and other reference materials for navigation purposes
- Analyses economic and statistical data from Member States of the Commission with a view to publication, comparing them with key figures from other river basins
- Prepares documents of the Commission in the field of navigation economics and statistics, as well as the economic conditions of inland waterway transport

Core requirements:

- University degree or equivalent vocational training (in the case of citizens of Danube States where the required higher education is not available), diploma from a qualifying higher technical education institution

- Extensive work experience, especially in Danube navigation
- Sound technical knowledge in the use of new vessel technologies and the application of the methods for navigation on the Danube and other major waterways
- Editorial skills, precise written and verbal communication.
- Comprehensive IT skills, especially in Microsoft Office applications
- Good command of written and spoken English and knowledge of one of the official languages of the Danube Commission is obligatory.
- High degree of teamwork, initiative, and motivation

Post description

We offer:

- Work in an international environment with the diplomatic privileges of an international organisation
- Financial conditions
- The term of office runs from 1 July 2027 to 30 June 2031 and may be extended for an additional four years

This call for applications is open exclusively to applicants who are citizens of Austria, Germany, Bulgaria, Croatia, Serbia, Slovakia, or Ukraine.

Please send your application documents, including a detailed CV (Europass format), a letter of motivation for the position of “Counsellor for Nautical Matters”, and copies of your qualifications, by 7 August 2026 at the latest, via email to the following address: mandate2027@danubecommission.org .

DC will be managing your application in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679. Submission of the application will be considered as consent to the processing of personal data relating to the applicant by the DC's Secretariat and the member states representatives. If your application has been unsuccessful, DC's Secretariat will delete your application and all records of your data within 1 year.